COFFEE MADE up the larger part of the cargo brought from Kona and Kau ports this morning by the inter-island steamer Mauna Loa. The vessel brought 15 cabin and 47 deck passengers and included in the freight list was 350 sacks coffee, 74 sacks taro, 11 barrels oranges, 11 crates fish, 51 bunches bananas, 20 bales hides, 22 head cattle, 14 hogs, 10 crates chickens, 1 outo and 120 packages sundries. The Mauna Loa met with light winds and smooth seas in crossing the channel.

REPRESENTING approximately $6,570,558, vessels leaving the port of Aberdeen during 1909 carried 472,509,423 feet of lumber. Of this 54,437,543 feet was shipped to foreign ports, 49,260,000 feet to California ports and 5,871,577 to coastwise ports other than in California. From these figures it is estimated that the total lumber cut of Gray's Harbor during 1909 will approximate 610,000,000 feet, a figure heretofore unprecedented.

THE American ship Hawaiian Isles, 2041 tons, a good vessel with a fine record, formerly owned by the Matson Navigation Company, has been sold to the Alaska Packers' Association for $60,000, which is considered a great bargain.

The Hawaiian Isles paid her last visit to the islands early last year when she arrived at Kahului from San Francisco Jan. 9, 1909.

AT 8 O'CLOCK last evening the new Matson Navigation liner Wilhelmina, en route to San Francisco, was 133 miles off the port. The vessel was steaming through smooth seas and everybody reported well on board.
